and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Friday night is the big night of the year for the Hamlin Board of Community Development as the annual banquet is staged at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

If you have any concern for the organization of your town you should attend this annual meeting. A fine, interesting program is in store for this year's crowd as Glenn Scott of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company presents a look into the future of space communications.

Friday afternoon and Saturday the annual Jones County FFA and 4-H Livestock will be held in Stamford and if you can spare the time it would be appreciated by the boys showing their projects if you would take in at least part of the show.

The boys have spent a lot of time and money on their animals and are looking for the opportunity to show them off.

The problem of basketball as a spectator sport with the closeness of the crowds and the importance of the part the officials play in the game was brought out Tuesday night in the Anson and Hamlin boys' game. The behavior of our fans was a long way from being as it should be and if it should continue in this fashion it could make it very difficult for the school to obtain officials and also give our town a bad reputation.

The unsportsmanlike conduct exhibited by our fans Tuesday night could cost us a ballgame sometime just on technical fouls.

Admittedly, it is hard to control yourself at times when you feel your team is getting a raw deal; more restraint is needed on the part of adults particularly.

Quite often the poor sportsmanship of the opposing is far overshadowed by the action of the fans.

For the most part the officials who work high school sports are of the finest character and are doing the job to the best of their ability and any incompetent official should be handled by the school officials and coaches and not the fans.

If the fans should become too inflamed and get out of hand, a bunch of fine youngsters would suffer.

This past week end my wife and I had the opportunity to hear Paul Harvey speak at the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce annual "Five Outstanding Young Texans" banquet in Odessa Saturday night.

He is a very fine speaker and is well worth the time and money to hear him if the opportunity should become available.

One of the things that he brought out in his speech is that Americans are just naturally pessimistic and he said if you don't believe this just ask someone for directions. They will tell you to go to the second STOP light and turn left. Harvey pointed out that the light is GREEN just as often as it is red.

A new form of communication was revealed here this past week. Mrs. Andy Bundes formerly lived in the house now occupied by Mrs. Wade Green and the Bundes' dog still goes back to what used to be home daily. When Mrs. Green needed to get in touch with Mrs. Bundes, who doesn't have a phone, she put a note on the dog's collar and sent him home. Mrs. Bundes found the note and everything was taken care of.

PIED PIPERS DROP FIRST DISTRICT GAME TO ANSON, 55-51

The Pied Pipers lost their first district game of the season here Tuesday night as they fell before the Anson Tigers, 55-51. Van Newberry led the Hamlin five with 20 points and Dudley White led the victors with 17 points.

The Hamlin Freshmen won their fourth straight victory of the season as they downed the Anson Freshmen, 34-29. The Boy's B Team won their ninth consecutive victory following two defeats to Snyder in their round with Anson Tuesday night 40-36.

The girls remained undefeated in district play by downing Anson, 31-29.

Last Friday night the Hamlin basketballers journeyed to Haskell for district play with the A team boys winning, 45-42; the B team boys winning, 52-41; and the girls winning, 40-33.

Stanley Austin and Bill Richey were selected by their teammates to serve as captains and the girls elected Jeanette Jenkins and Debby Rountree as their captains for the remainder of the season.

The district warfare will continue next Tuesday night for the Hamlin teams as they host the Spur Bulldogs. Spur is tied with Anson for first place in the district with two wins each.

When the form is filled out it may be returned to the schools, grocery stores, any Jaycee or may be mailed back to the Jaycees. No postage is required.

For the convenience of its readers who might not get a copy of the survey it is being published in this issue of the Herald and may be brought into the Herald or mailed to Box 188.

The results of the survey, when completed, will also be published in the Herald. The questionnaires are being distributed in the local grocery stores, in the schools and will be available at the BCD banquet Friday night.

The purpose of the crusade is to strengthen the denomination's schools by encouraging more Baptist students to attend Baptist colleges, to participate in the Baptist Student Union at what ever college they might attend, and to consider vociferously careers and by raising $28-million for the buildings and equipment on Baptist campuses.

Texas Baptist schools are Baylor University, Waco; Decatur Baptist College, Decatur; East Texas Baptist College of Marshall; Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene; Howard Payne College, Brownwood; Mary Hardin-Baylor College of Belton; San Marcos Baptist Academy, San Marcos; University of Corpus Christi, of Corpus Christi; and Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. The decision to end limitations on the skip-row planting is in line with recommendations of the Cotton Advisory Committee and many members of the cotton industry, USDA officials said, and is expected to result in improved income for cotton growers through increased efficiency in production.

The January 2 announcement applies only to cotton and does not change skip-row determinations in effect for other crops.

The change, Secretary Freeman aid, will provide the cotton grower with more latitude in planning and carrying out his operations. Under the new system, only land actually planted to cotton will be counted as cotton land in determining compliance with acreage allotment and marketing quotas. Each grower will determine for himself the pattern best suited to his operation. It is expected that many will shift to a two-and-two pattern, that is two rows of cotton and two rows left idle or planted to other crops.

The January 2 announcement applies only to cotton and does not change skip-row determinations in effect for other crops.

400 Expected for BCD Banquet Friday Night

Final plans for the Hamlin Board of Community Development's annual banquet Friday night at 7:30 at the High School Gymnasium have been completed and a crowd of around 400 is expected to be in attendance to hear Glenn Scott, science demonstrator for Southwestern Bell Telephone Laboratories scientists science program, "Voices Across Time and Space."

At a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday morning it was decided to permit students to the program following the meal free of charge. Plans to expand worldwide communications by bouncing telephone calls off satellites orbiting in outer space will be described by Scott, using miniature equipment to demonstrate Project Echo, an experiment conducted by Bell Telephone Laboratories Scientists who made coast-to-coast long distance calls by bouncing voice signals off a balloon satellite to orbit 1,000 miles above the earth.

Other techniques the Bell System has developed to improve and increase telephone transmission also will be demonstrated. Among these is a device that can transmit samples of many different telephone conversations over the same pair of wires at the same time and then decode them back to normal voice conversations at their destinations.

Scott also will demonstrate how microwave systems work to beam long distance calls and television programs across the country via the airways.

Rev. Fred Brown, pastor of the Faith Methodist Church, will give the invocation and Rev. Lenard Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will give the benediction. Ed Croan will serve as master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Hamlin Mayor John Howard Jr. will extend the welcome and W. T. Johnson will introduce the guests.

Fred Smith, out-going president of the BCD, will give a report of the year's activities and introduce the new officers and directors.

The meal will be served by the Hamlin School Cafeteria and dinner music will be furnished by Joe Hudspeth's.

Tickets are available from several sources around town and are priced at $2.50 per plate.

Floyd Clifton Promoted by Bank Directors

Floyd Clifton has been elevated to the position of Executive Vice President of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors. He was formerly Vice President of the organization.

The banks yearly financial report listed the deposits at $5,579,532.86 and the loans at $2,339,263.43. Clifton stated that the loans and deposits were in very good condition and that the deposits would have probably set a new all-time high had the area cotton crop been in before the end of the year as is in normal years.

It seems that the extreme cold weather, especially when very sudden changes take place in the City water main give trouble. Monday night a break occurred in the main leading to the pump station. This was fixed and when the pump was started again Tuesday a second break was found on Central Avenue that tied the line up almost all day. School was dismissed due to boiler trouble caused by the breaks in the main. The First National Bank elected the following officers at a recent meeting: J. G. Wilkinson of Fort Worth, president; John T. Day, vice president; B. L. Jones, cashier; and assistant cashiers were O. H. Berry and Miss Lennie Greenway. Directors are J. G. Wilkinson, John T. Day, F. B. Moore, O. H. Berry and B. L. Jones.

One of the true signs of the return of prosperity is that in some lines the demand is in excess of the manufacturing—for example, there is an anti-freeze, popular and reliable on the market and the reports are that nothing like a supply can be had. This is not all, the list is gradually growing—skilled labor offers the best field now. To be "skilled" is to be "experienced" the experience is the point. The last few years the field for experience has narrowed, and old hands are now dropping out—who will take their place, the young men? Skilled workmen are in demand cold or hot.

Threat of an increase in fire insurance rates for the city of Hamlin loomed this week as tabulations of insured fire losses for last year were made by T. W. McGuire, city fire marshal. One bad fire, that of the Producers Gin, accounted for 75 per cent of the entire year's losses, may prove to be a deciding factor in causing a change in the present insurance rate, under which property owners are enjoying a 25 per cent good fire record credit on premiums.

AUSTIN—Substantial progress has been made by the Legislators toward enactment of Gov. Price Daniel's program.

Lawmakers seeking re-election this spring are diligently at work. They want to be home by the filing deadline... Feb. 5.

LOANS: House of Representatives sent a much-amended loan regulatory bill to the Senate. Bill would set up tight supervision over those who lend in amounts less than $1,500. Exceptions are banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and various kinds of cooperative credit groups.

Those exempt from the regulatory law would be limited to 10 per cent interest per year. All loans over $1,500 would likewise be held to 10 per cent. House bill allows a 3 per cent per month charge on loans under $100... 2 1/2 per cent on the part of the loan from $100 to $200... 2 per cent on $200 to $500... and 10 per cent on the part between $500 and $1,500.

When interest allowed on a loan over $20 is less than $4, the lender can charge $4 in lieu of interest.

Rural Roads: Senate passed the proposal by Sen. Neville Colson of Navasota to cut the spending on farm-to-market road construction-improvement by $17,500,000 a year. This amount will be used for construction of secondary and primary highways.

A House rural bloc on the Agriculture Committee favored a smaller reduction. They preferred a ten year graduated cut... to reach the goal set by Governor Daniel, Texas Farm Bureau, the County Judge and Commissioners Association and the Texas Good Roads Association.

Tourism: Large crowds turned out for the Senate and House committee meeting on these bills: (1) to appropriate $300,000 for advertising for tourists; (2) for expansion of the juvenile parole system; (3) and for repairs to the San Jacinto Monument.

Opposition came largely from advertising people who felt the Highway Department isn't the proper supervisor of an advertising program.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S RACE BEGINS—Former Secretary of State Tom Reavley of Austin was the first candidate for Attorney General to pay the $1,000 filing fee at State Democratic Executive Committee headquarters.

This is Reavley's first statewide race. The former Nacoches County Attorney was appointed Secretary of State in 1955. He now practices law in Austin.

Waggoner Carr of Lubbock two-term Speaker of the House of Representatives, already has announced as a candidate.

Although Carr lost the 1960 race to Will Wilson, he polled a half million votes.

The Lubbock lawyer says his platform has one basic plank, "strengthening our legal framework where needed, and more vigorous enforcement of those laws, once enacted."

Les Procter of Austin, who resigned his office as District Attorney, is expected to make a strong bid for the Attorney General's job.

Procter won prominence as prosecuting attorney during the veterans land scandals.

Rep. Tom James of Dallas, the fourth announced candidate for Attorney General, is busy with legislative duties.

"TOURISTS" READY TO TRAVEL—Formation of the Texas Tourist Council became official at a luncheon here which honored state representatives. Council urged appropriation of $300,000 for out-of-state advertising.

Tourist Council elected as its president James Gaines of San Antonio. Vice presidents are Glenn Alexander of Corpus Christi, Everett Fulgham of Lubbock, Ed Leach of Galveston, Charlie Meeker of Dallas, T. P. Newhall of Greenville, John Ben Sheppard of Odessa and John Simpson of Austin. Ed St. John of Austin was elected secretary.

Speaker James A. Turman told the 500 luncheon guests that the old joke "it is easier to pick a tourist than a bale of cotton" is about to go stale. He said Texas must let the rest of the nation know what it has to offer.

TEXAS CALLED BOOK DESERT—University of Texas Chancellor Dr. Harry Ransom told members of the Texas Commission on Higher Education that the State of Texas is laboring under the label of "the book desert of the United States."

Dr. Ransom made the statement in support of a plea from Dr. F. L. McDonald, the President of Lamar State College of Technology, for a more realistic appropriation recommendation for libraries in Texas' 19 state colleges.

Reappointed to the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education were: Dr. Glenn Barnett of the University of Texas; Mrs. Kate Bell of Houston Public Schools; Dr. Arvin N. Donner of the University of Houston; Dr. Frank Hubert of Texas A&M; Dr. Herbert Lagrone of Texas Christian University; Dr. Emmett D. Smith of West Texas State College, and Mrs. Florence Vaughn of Tyler Public Schools.

The Board also appointed a 16-member Junior College Study Commission on Budget Procedures and Re-

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER NOT SURPRISED THAT SCIENTISTS CAN'T DETECT LIFE ON OTHER PLANETS

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1, discusses a new scientific research problem this week, not too scientifically.

Dear editor:

It's amazing sometimes to find out what scientists are up to.

For example, the other day I read that a group of scientists for several months now have been spending their time listening for radio signals from other planets, on the assumption there is life out there somewhere and if so maybe those people have discovered radio.

The result of the listening was bleak, the scientists reporting: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds."

It's not for me to be advising scientists, but I'd like to say they shouldn't give up.

Look at it this way: say there are similar scientists on some planet far out into space and right now they've hit on the same idea, trying to find out if there is life on some other planet too. All right. They've got their radios turning on. This to comply with a bill for appropriations to public junior colleges passed in the summer session of the 57th Legislature.

SHORT SNORTS
Assistant Attorney General Bob Eric Shannon of Brownwood has been appointed the Chief of the Attorney General's Insurance, Banking and Securities Division.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson won a judgement recovering more than $423,000 for the State in a suit alleging fraudulent sale of land in Kinney County to the Veteran's Land Board.

Agriculture Commissioner John White predicted that the growth of the European "Common Market" will have a major effect on Texas farm economy. He said Texans will export some 25 per cent of their $800 million cotton crop this year.

Accreditation standards was a much-discussed topic when 1,200 Texas school administrators met here last week.

STATEWIDE CHRISTMAS TRAFFICDEATHS LOWEST IN 13 YEARS

Governor Price Daniel said today that Texas closed the fifth year of its Statewide traffic safety crusade with the lowest number of year-end holiday traffic deaths in the past 13 years.

A total of 77 persons were reported killed in Texas traffic crashes during the ten-day holiday, designated as "Operation Deathwatch 1961" by the Texas Department of Public Safety. Then ten days covered the period between 12:01 a.m., Saturday, December 23, and 11:59 p.m., Monday, Jan. 1. The official DPS estimate had anticipated 88 traffic deaths during the period, lowest estimate made for any Christmas-New Year's holiday of any length since 1950.

The Governor was advised by the DPS that when it closed its books on "Operation Deathwatch 1961" at 11 a.m., Tuesday, the holiday death list carried the names of 77 persons, 11 fewer than expected and a reduction of 12 1/2% over the estimate.

"We mourn the loss of the 77 who were killed, but I congratulate the people of Texas, law enforcement officials, news media, outdoor sign companies and all others who helped keep traffic deaths lower than usual," Governor Daniel said.

Highlight of the lifesaving campaign came on Tuesday, Dec. 26, when no fatal crash and no traffic death was reported anywhere in Texas. The month of December is noted for its high number of traffic deaths, the DPS reported, and this was only the fourth December since 1946 to record a "Deathless Day" anytime during the month. Never before has there been a "Deathless Day" in Texas traffic during an official year-end holiday period.

Of the 58 fatal collisions, 11 were responsible for a total of 30 deaths. Eight separate crashes took two lives each, and other crash took four lives, and two others, one near Hearne and the other near Victoria, each took five lives.

The Victoria area collision between a car and a train occurred barely eight hours before the close of "Operation Deathwatch."

Governor Daniel said there was "no doubt in my mind but that the massive education campaign undertaken so willingly and wholeheartedly by the communications media of the State law enforcement agencies and the willingness of hundreds of thousands of drivers to drive carefully and un- usually brought about this unusual and heartening result. I am still sure that most of the people of Texas want to do the right thing in traffic. I feel that this particular campaign and its results are clear evidence of their active participation in a State-wide movement to save lives and reduce injury in traffic."

☐ True ☐ False

The Fable

Thirty-one per cent of the nation's influential citizens think rural electrics have contributed only moderately, or not at all, to the national welfare. This misconception was revealed in a recent nation-wide public opinion survey.

The Facts

Rural electric systems, financed by Rural Electrification Administration loans, have raised rural living standards, and reduced farm drudgery. Electrical helpers enable fewer farmers to provide an abundance of choice food for city tables. Rural demand for electrical equipment and appliances has created a new multi-million dollar market for industry, and improved employment opportunities. Equally important, adequate electric power in rural areas is speeding decentralization of industry and rapid establishment of vital defense outposts.

1962 MERCURY MONTEREY

The best-looking buy for the big-car man

Delivers the extra room, luxury, and power you want—at a price you'll like!

There's a wonderful feeling about owning a Mercury Monterey. It's Mercury's most luxurious car—the very top of the line.

Yet the Monterey is still within the popular price range. No other car near its price makes driving so enjoyable in so many ways.

THERE'S EXTRA ROOM for long legs and big families—a spaciousness that helps take the tension out of traffic, makes long trips less tiring. More trunk space, too—30.7 cu. ft. big.

THERE'S A SMOOTHER, QUIETER RIDE. Cushion-Link Suspension absorbs bumps you still feel in other cars. And the Monterey uses more soundproofing—260 square feet of it.

FINER ENGINE CHOICE. You can have exactly the power and economy combination you wish. Just specify the Economy "6", 292 V-8, 352 V-8, or 390 V-8.

MORE MONEY-SAVERS. The Monterey has 9 service-saving features—needs routine attention only twice a year. Or at 6,000- to 30,000-mile intervals.

See your Mercury dealer soon for a demonstration. Sample that wonderful Monterey feeling.

FAIRVIEW NEWS--

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Since all of the news the past week has been about the weather, it would just be repeating the same thing for me to say that it has been cold. It has been so cold that most every one just stayed home and tried to stay as warm as possible. This will be one year that spring will be very welcome since it has been bad weather so long.

Mr. G. W. Wainscott is home from the hospital, having spent a few days as a patient, and is feeling better.

Mr. R. J. Waddle is a patient in the Hamlin Hospital.

Fred Rosenbaum was absent from church services both times Sunday, staying home nursing a bad cold.

Mrs. Mel Jones spent from Thursday until Tuesday in Abilene, with her son, Rex Jones and children, while Mrs. Rex Jones was in Hendrick Hospital recovering from surgery.

The many friends of Mrs. Johnnie Agnew were sorry to learn that she has had such a time from having two teeth extracted. She has spent one week in the hospital, and although it has been six weeks, she is still suffering very much with her jaw where they were pulled.

Flavel Holmes has also had some sessions with the dentist the past week, that has caused him quite a lot of trouble, but he is about to get over his.

Linda Goodwin spent Friday and Saturday nights with Suzanne Wicker in Hamlin.

Mrs. P. N. McCright, father of Mrs. George Wainscott, spent the weekend with the Wainscotts.

When he can afford it, the Automobile dealers have relearned an old truth about advertising—that is, advertising can not sell anything which people do not want.

The large, luxurious American automobile has been called by critics a product of advertising techniques. Critics argued that people would be satisfied with a smaller plain car if one were available and properly publicized.

The small, plain cars, mostly of foreign vintage, have been made available. They have been brilliantly publicized. For some months, the sale of such cars seemed to support the arguments of the critics of advertising.

When he can afford it, the about a product for which a latent demand existed. Advertising which did not take advantage of this demand did not work.

Conversely, advertising which does not provide information which satisfies latent demand is not good advertising. In a free economy it is not for the seller to decide what is best for the consumer.

GOD'S WILL

The greatest commandment is that we should love our God.

This is a free choice that man has, but it is God's desire that all would seek Him. He is our heavenly Father, and desires only the best for us.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
